Concerning
the affairs of our W.
Camp for Churches past. Please
My dear Sir,

The Nigeria Co. & Land Co. Limited, Ladbroke Estate,

Cotacmand.
August 11th 1882

My dear Sir,

Yours of 14th is hand. I am very pleased to hear that you are going to the Mylly appointment and I hope it will do well for me and for himself. I have accepted the appointment but as he took eight days to decide I informed him that I had meanwhile made other arrangements.

Regarding Camp I am very glad for some mentioned the matter to me. I never heard of such importance in the same matter. He is merely a working gardener and I take cutting and propagating plants in other ways under glass he is quite useless as an observer of labor (or was so while with me) A native Ministry on the 10th of June was much more useful in the field. I engaged him in London at end of 1880 and set him out under an agreement for three years for the purpose of looking after my Nigeria propagating house. He worked with me for ten months is a satisfied and satisfied member at end of that period I gave him leave to visit the Chesterbury valley for a few days and shortly after his return and while I was confined at the house by dysentery. He wrote me a most unkind letter making the most Impertinent and Intemperate Demands, I replied very civilly saying that I would do anything for him in reason but asked him to name the clause of his agreement under which he made his various demands, he replied in a snivelling manner saying that under his demands were mutually complied with & would leave at the end of the week and further added that the "incongruous piece of writing" I was pleased to call an agreement was no agreement at all. He left as I said he would and took legal proceedings against him his only plea was that he was a minor when he signed the agreement (having in England told me that he was of age) & asked to restore this plea and to oblige damages to 600-0-0 which amount has not been paid. A warrant for his arrest is now in force and in a few days time he will probably be in Gaol - I treated him with kindness & great forbearance too kindly but I never treated him as an equal and would not admit him to my house, excepting into the office; this I am sure was his reason for turning insolent and intemperate.

He was investigated by P. M. Grant of the C. O. Valley who employed him directly in the office - Grant, I hear, is now tired of him and finds him useless - Such a man could only be useful in a very subordinate capacity if ever there.

Yours sincerely
Col. Jago
I must close about the matter whether should refer to him. P.M.
