REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following letter from Major J. C. WALKER, Conservator of Forests, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Coimbatore, 31st July 1882, No. 642-C :—

I have the honor to report that I consider it advisable that the Deputy Conservator, Nilgiri Division, should be present at the auction sale of Chinchona Bark in Madras, advertised for the 4th September next.

2. Colonel Jago was prevented from attending the last auction, but deputed the Manager of the Chinchona office to watch the sale, afford information required, &c., which was found necessary. I think it preferable on this occasion that Mr. Gass should attend in person to conduct the sale, and request sanction in order that the Accountant General may pass his travelling allowance.

ORDER—dated 15th August 1882, No. 854, Revenue.

-What in the name of Common sense can Miss Kinn about
the bark to be sold on his 4th Prop^{ty}: he has never had any Chinnam

-Can Kinn no more than his Auction sale notice

Manager went last time: needed
he was Sec. Cons. (who has no special knowledge) can influence the sales.
Major Walker says Col. Jago was prevented from going
last time.

Noting to show that Govt.
never gave Col. T. leave to go.
