GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following letter from A. P. CAMIRON, Esq., Her Britannic Majesty's Consul, to His Excellency the Righ Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, Madras, dated Batavia, 21st July 1883, No. 152 :—

I have the honor to draw your attentionto the fact that, by a resolution dated 28th ultimo, the Netherlands India Governnent has declared its intention of no longer distributing the Chinchona seed from the Government Plantations free of charge as formerly. The seed will, in future be sold by auction every two months, or, if circumstances should require it, every month, at Bandong, in the Preanger Regencies, Java, to the highest bidder.

2. The sales will comprise quantities of Ledgeriana, Succirubra and Officinalis seed, and at the first auction, which will take place on the 4th proximo, will be sold—

(a) One small lot of seeds taken fron the original Ledgeriana trees, in packages of about 20 grammes.
(b) One lot of seeds from typical Ledgeriana trees, in packages of about 50 grammes.
(c) One lot of Succirubra seeds, in packages of about 50 grammes.
(d) One lot of Officinalis seeds, in packages of about 100 grammes.

3. As the Chinchona-growing interest is a large one in your Presidency, this information may be of public interest, and I have therefore considered it advisable to acquaint your Government with the above particulars.

ORDER—dated 22nd August 1883, No. 1025, Revenue.

Miscellaneous.

Ordered that the above letter be communicated to the Director of Government Chinchona Plantations, Parks, and Gardens, Nilgiris, the Board of Revenue, the Nilgiri, Wynaad, and Yercaud Planters' Associations, the Honorary Secretary, Agri-Horticultural Society, Madras, and the Editors' Table.
