PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM—dated 12th June 1883, No. 1710.

Government having noticed that in certain districts a change in Collectors' office hours had been notified in contravention of the rule laid down in G.O., 15th January 1883, Mis. No. 167, the Board represented that, in opening their offices in the early morning during the hot months of the year, the Collectors concerned were acting in accordance with long-established custom. Upon this representation, the Government have expressed their willingness not to interfere with the custom thus obtaining, but at the same time they direct the Board to see that the general rule laid down in the Government Order quoted above is not lost sight of.

2. In pursuance of this instruction, the Board resolve to require that in every case of change in the office hours prescribed, the Collector making it shall report the fact for their information—stating at the same time for what period the change of hours is to last.
