REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE
THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR INDIA.

MY LORD,

We have the honor to acknowledge receipt of Lord Hartington's despatch, No. 31 of 1882, describing the mode in which the value of Chinchona bark should be credited in the accounts

view of the budget estimate for 1883-84.†

Some time must necessarily elapse before a new method of account can be brought into force, and the figures contained in the reviews just mentioned had been submitted prior to the receipt of your Lordship's despatch.

3. Orders will issue in due course for the adoption of the method of credit prescribed, but in the mean time we would ask your Lordship to be so good as to inform us, whether the fact that, under the new decentralisation scheme which came into force on the 1st April 1882, Chinchona receipts fall wholly to be credited to Provincial revenues, was considered when the despatch under reference was penned.

We have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient, humble servants, due course for the adoption of the method of credit prescribed but in the meantime we would ask your Lordship to be so good as to inform us, whether the fact, that, under the new decentralisation scheme which came into force on the 1st April 1882, Chinchorra Receipts fall wholly to be credited to provincial revenues, was considered when the despatch under reference was framed.

Note

The statement made in the first draft was, as noted by the Secretary, not quite accurate. Head of account XV "minor depart^s" is not wholly provincial. The receipts are but the expenditure under Archaeology, Meteorology Census, Horticulture & Statistical Memoirs is Imperial. 18

* This only the excess that is charged to Provincial.
