Director's Office

From

M. A. Lawson Esq.
Director of Govt. Civil Planting
Bot. Gardens Parks
Cotacaimund

To

H. Webster Esq.
Secretary to Government
Revenue Department.
Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honor to draw your attention to the following very unsatisfactory practice, which has always obtained in this office, of paying large sums of money, e.g. Rs. 1500 to a person, who carries it without protection to Kaduvattam.

It is probable that sooner or later the money will be stolen if this practice continues, and I have therefore to request that you will be so good as to inform me if some safer method of sending the money might not be adopted.

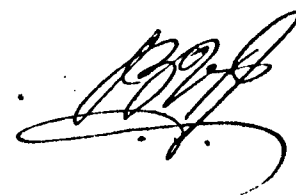

I have the honor to be

Sir

Yours most obedient servant

M. A. Lawson.
