Read—again the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th November 1881, Mis. No. 9900:—

Read—the following letter from C. KOUGH, Esq., Acting Sub-Collector, to the Collector of Madura, dated Dindigul, 31st August 1881, No. 380:—

There is a chattram at Vadamadura which is much used and is very much out of repair. I have seen it.

2. There is an inam of land, assessed at Rs. 6 15-0, at present occupied by the Subramania Aiyar, a well-known individual. The grant was originally made in the time of Mangammal, a Carnatic ruler, and appears in the Taluk Inam Register.

3. It does not appear that repair of the building was a condition of the original grant; but it is clear that the maintenance of a fixed establishment is comprehended, and I hold one is a sequitur of the other.

4. The repairs now needed are to the extent of Rs. 693-12-0.

5. If you think that the chattram and inam can be transferred to the Local Fund Board, I shall ask them if they are willing to take it and do the repairs.

6. If not, I think we should sue the Huekdar.

Endorsement by H. J. STOKES, Esq., Collector of Madura, dated 8th October 1881, No. 411.

Submitted to the Board of Revenue, with reference to Section 11 of Act IV of 1871 (Local Fund Act). The Local Fund

Read—also the following letter from C. S. CROLE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue dated 23rd August 1884, No. 462:—

With reference to Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 9900, dated 14th November 1881, I have the honor to submit translation of an extract from the Inam Register of Vadamadura village, Dindigul Taluk. It will be observed therefrom that the chattram was intended for the accommodation of travellers, and that butter-milk also should be distributed to them.

2. The English Inam Register of Dindigul Taluk, which alone would furnish the detailed information regarding the terms of the grant, is in the High Court, having been filed in the suits instituted against the Huckdars of Dindigul chattram. An application was made to the High Court for an extract from the register, but it was not complied with, on the ground that it was quite illegible and that none of the copyists in the High Court were able to decipher it.

3. Under these circumstances, there is no alternative but to dispose of the matter on the information available.

The man does not seem to
