Dear Lafferan

I am in a fix for want of paper for the herbarium — I have tried to get the proper sort at the stationary office and at all the other shops in Madras, but have failed.

When I was in a like difficulty before, Rees's magic pen speedily brought the requisite amount of sorts. May I ask you kindly to send me some, and to order for me ten (10) reams of each of the two kinds which I enclose.

It is still very dry
and the thirsty soil gaping. I suppose
an steady warming ...
Madras.

I remain
Yrs sincerely
