Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge, with thanks, the receipt of a copy of General Order, 30th April 1884 No 570, in reply to my application on behalf of the Madras Muz-samy Conference for papers regarding the new Abkari system.

While the General Order forwarded explains the present regulations, it does not state so fully as we could wish how they differ from the former rules, nor the reasons which led to their adoption. This information seems to be given in the "Note on Abkari Changes," to which reference is made. May I beg the favour of a copy of the "Note" likewise?

I have the honor to be

Sir

Yours most obedient servant
