GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th June 1884, No. 2128 :—

Read—the following letter from L. R. BURROYS, Esq., Acting Collector of Nilgiris, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Ootacamund, 28th May 1884, No. 172 :—

The Accountant-General, Madras, has objected to the Wynaad allowances sanctioned for the Head Assistant Collector's establishment in the G.O., Revenue Department, dated 4th October 1883, No. 1229 being continued to them for a later period than the end of February, on the ground that from that date the Head Assistant Collector's head-quarters are to be located at Naduvatom, which is not in the Wynaad, in accordance with G.O., Judicial Department, dated 6th November 1883, No. 2923. The Accountant-General's objection is said to be based on G.O., No. 358, dated 20th February 1884, Financial, which cannot be found in this office, and does not seem to have been communicated to me. I have the honor, however, to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain sanction for the continuance of these allowances, so long as the Head Assistant Collector is in charge of South-East Wynaad, without reference to the temporary location of his head-quarters at any particular place. Mr. Brandt has fully set forth the necessity for the allowances in his letter * of 13th July last year, and the difficulties he there refers to are only increased by the Accountant-General finding occasion to raise objections like the present, which it does not seem to me he has sufficient reason for doing. As a matter of fact, the Gudalur Deputy Tahsildar and his whole establishment are down with fever at the present moment. He has had to come into Ootacamund and his establishment have absconded, so that the entire work of the establishment is at a stand-still, and objections to allowances will only tend to enhance these difficulties to work, and make the establishment more discontented and unmanageable.

2. I enclose copy of letter, No. 526, dated 3rd instant, from the Acting Head Assistant Collector, and I agree with him in the construction he thinks ought to be put upon the orders of Government of 4th October and 16th November 1883, referred to in the first paragraph of his letter.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From F. E. K. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector, Naduvatom, to the Collector of Nilgiris, dated 3rd May 1884, No. 526.

With reference to the Deputy Collector's office letter, No. 512, dated 30th April 1884, I have the honor to point out that the G.O., No. 1229, dated 4th October 1883, sanctions increased rate of pay to my establishment while the Head Assistant Collector is stationed in South-East Wynaad or is in charge of South-East Wynaad.

2. The Head Assistant Collector is still stationed in South-East Wynaad and in charge of South-East Wynaad Division, and the Government Order † referred to simply permits the

† No. 2923, dated 6th November 1883.

Head Assistant Collector to reside temporarily at Naduvatom (instead of at Ootacamund as he did last year) during the feverish weather without making any change in his division whatever. G.O., No. 2314, dated 21st July 1882, is still in force; Naduvatom, though actually half a mile outside the limits of South-East Wynaad, is still within the jurisdiction of the Head Assistant Magistrate.

3. As a matter of fact, the nearest market is at Gúdalúr, and all provisions have to be brought up the ghát from Gúdalúr; as at present moment there is no accommodation for my establishment, therefore living is quite as dear and as inconvenient at Naduvatom as in Wynnaad Proper.

4. If the objection raised by the Accountant-General is valid, I would point out that when on circuit or at head-quarters at Ootacamund the allowance could not be drawn. He accordingly seems to have mistaken the Government Order quoted as a change of the Head Assistant Collector's division (or as cancelling G.O., No. 23 dated 21st July 1882) instead of being merely permissive for him to reside within his division. I add that, as a matter of fact, the Head Assistant Collector did not leave Devála till the end of February and still continues to visit Wynnaad.
