With reference to my letter, No. 40, dated the 15th August 1885, I have the honor to inform you the analysis of the renewed crown bark, which had been selected for December's sale, having appeared to me to be unusually high and altogether out of the run of the analysis of such barks, I had an average analysis made from seven samples of that bark which gave the following:—

Cinchonidine	1·22
Quinidine	·33
Cinchonine	·37
Amorphous alkaloids	·74
		7·54
Sulphate of quinine		6·56
