1884,
Board of Revenue,
MADRAS.

Orders:—

I submit that no objection should be made to India. To do so would delay the passing of the Abkari Bill and on the merits there seems no case.

The persons & petty officers of classes ~~to be~~ against Mr. Bliss' proposed section are aimed will not have any power as Abkari Officers & if the sections are wanted alone their place is in the consolidated Salt Law and in the Abkari Act.
If the service in the Salt Dept. is already distasteful, so that men leave it without warning matter will not be improved by the proposed legislation.

N.E.S.

I think there is a real deal of force in Mr. Bliss arguments but it will be a great pity to delay the passing of the Bill by making the representation at this stage. We can re-consider by & the possibility of delay.
