Sir,

With reference to official memos from the Under Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department No. 332 dated the 10th June 1885, I have the honor to state in reply to the query regarding the analysis of barks for the next sales, that it is usually understood that Renewed bark is better than Mossed and Mossed than Natural. But such an understanding rests upon results obtained some few years back. There is no law that such an arrangement should be constant. Some of the latest analyses made on the Plantations show that mossed bark often is richer than Renewed, and other observations indicate that renewals from the oldest trees are lower in Alkaloidal strength than some from later plantings.

On

2 On referring to the analyses of the barks in question there appears nothing in the work or the Calculations that needs correcting.
