For orders

There can be but little doubt from para two of the appellate judgment that the man was quite properly detained. He was however held the innocent of the specific charge preferred against him and he would be difficult to explain to the Govt of India precisely why he was detained from the papers now before Govt. It is suggested therefore that it would be well to send this to Mr. Dawson for report in order that we may have in the office some thing upon which to draft, when (if he does) the man goes to India with his appeal.
