After the death of Athirakshami, the Acting Collector, Mr. Stokes, recommended to the Board on the 1st July 1878 that the pension be continued to the survivor Thangam during her lifetime. The Board in their Proceedings, No. 2377, dated 24th August 1878, supported the view of the Collector and requested the sanction of Government, but the Government in their Order, No. 741, dated 27th March 1879, declared one-half of the pension to have lapsed and sanctioned the continuance of the remaining half to Thangam Ahal during her lifetime. On reconsideration, however, the Government in their Proceedings, No. 623, dated 7th May 1880, cancelled their former order and directed that the whole allowance be continued to the family during the life of Thangam Ahal, the surviving grantee. 2. Now Thangam Ahal having died, Kolandai Servai and others pray for the continuance of the pension in their names with arrears from the date of her death, in consideration of their deplorable condition and on the ground that the pension in
