Sir,

Messrs Cole & Co, Madras, have telegraphed to me to say, that there will not be sufficient time for them to obtain their limits from Europe, for the auction sale of 6th December 1856, and have requested that the sale may bee postponed to a later date..

2. I have the honor to recommend therefore that the sale be held on the 20th December.

3. The barks were sent from here to Madras on the 9th and 16th October 1856- they could not have been sent before, owing to the bulk of the bark having only been harvested this year.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obt. Servant
