the allowance [illegible] tenure in his name as he is the son of the eldest daughter of the deceased, but the Sub Collector recommends the grant in the name of Per Nazarath for the reason that the deceased (who succeeded to the allowance through her husband and not through her mother) had nominated him as he has relinquished to his in three boys:—

(a) Grandson of her first Cousin (Paternal uncle's son)

(b) grand son of her second daughter.

(c) son of her sister's grand-daughter.

In these circumstances the acting Collector supports the Sub Collector's recommendation to appoint the nominee of the deceased.

The sum of Rs 100 a month recommended by the Sub Collector is not too liberal taking into [illegible]
