READ—the following papers :—

From Colonel M. PROTHEROE, C.B., C.S.I., Officiating Quartermaster-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 22nd May 1888, No. 1980 A.

The question of rent payable by the detached wing, British Infantry, located at Fort St. George, for the mess-house having been raised, I have been desired to submit it for the consideration of Government.

2. The Commander-in-Chief considers that mess funds should not be required to meet such a large demand on account of a mess-house for a wing in addition to the amount of rent which remains undiminished consequent on the detachment of a wing for the mess-house at the head-quarter station; and His Excellency recommends that, on the principle on which the rent of the mess-house of the Royal Artillery at St. Thomas' Mount is reduced when only one battery is there,* the rent of the mess-house at Fort St. George should be reduced from Rs. 100 to Rs. 50 per mensem when a detached wing is located at Madras as at present.

Report from the Officiating Controller of Military Accounts, dated Fort St. George, 28th June 1888, B.

Re-enclosed.

2. Under Article 1001, Army Regulations, India, Volume I, Part I, an extra allowance of Rs. 50 is drawn by the 1st (Duke of Cornwall's) Light Infantry on account of the absence from head-quarters of the wing at Fort St. George; but in the case of the Royal Artillery at St. Thomas' Mount, no extra mess allowance is drawn by the remaining batteries when one leaves the station.

3. No application appears to have been made by the 2nd Bedford Regiment for a reduction in the rent of the mess-house during the time the wing of the regiment was located in Fort St. George, viz., from June 1886 to March 1888.

4. The building occupied by the British Infantry mess in the Fort is the property of Government, the rent charged to the mess for the same being Rs. 100 per mensem, which rent is credited to the Public Works Department.

5. It is accordingly for Government in that Department to determine whether, under the circumstances urged, the reduction sought may be allowed.
