READ—the following papers:—

From T. M. HORSFALL, Esq., Acting Registrar of the High Court of Judicature at Madras, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St George, dated Madras, 16th July 1888, No 1811

With reference to G.O., dated 23rd December 1886, No. 3283, Judicial, I am directed to forward, for the sanction of Government, the accompanying plan and estimate, amounting to Rs 4,700, for improvements to the District Munsif's Court-house at Kasaragod, in the South Canara District, and to request that the Government may be pleased to allot funds for the purpose at an early date.

2 The District Judge reports that if the alterations and additions now proposed are made, they will obviate the necessity for a new building.

3 The High Court are inclined to think that the new Bench will be placed too far forward in the Court hall.

Approved and transferred to the Public Works Department

(By Order)

24th July 1888

(Signed) A. G. CARDEW,
Ag. Under-Secretary.

Note by the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department.

The estimate, amounting to Rs 4,700, for improvements to the District Munsif's Court at Kasaragod, in the South Canara District, is submitted for the sanction of Government with the following remarks:—

(1) The arrangement of roof of Vakeels' room should be altered, the ridge being placed at right angles to the ridge of the main building. The roof should project two feet beyond the gable end of the room as altered.

(2) The porch seems low and should be raised.
