REVENUE DEPARTMENT

Proceedings, dated 8th December 1887.
Forest No. 1087 Miscellaneous.

Read 6th Forest.
Subject.

Submitting for the information and orders of Government a petition from the Trustees of the Tiruvannamalai temple praying that the Revenue Board will withdraw the offer to hand over the Tiruvannamalai hill to the Forest Department.

For orders.

As no relief to Government can be come to, it is submitted that the offer to hand over the forest hill be withdrawn and any sums which have been paid refunded. The Devasthanam Committee has no funds at its disposal and the trustees of the Tiruvannamalai temple seem to be quite indifferent whether the forest is made over to them or left under the control of the Forest Dept. The agitation which led to the offer to hand over the hill seems to have been agitation only and not the outcome of genuine religious feeling.

13 Nov.

Read order.

Do. Send to temple trustee & Collector. Say Govt. are glad to find that the people are not in favour of the proposal to hand over the hill to the Devasthanam Committee. Govt. will therefore not proceed further in the matter. Collector will be informed separately.

C. No. 8640

Letter to Trustees Tiruvannamalai temple. Govt. are glad to find that the people are not in favour of the proposal to hand over the hill to the Devasthanam Committee. Govt. will therefore not proceed further in the matter. Collector will be informed separately.

Mrs C.O.

From the report submitted by the Collector the Board learn that no united action on the part of the Synagogue Committee and the Temple Trustees can be obtained and that no satisfactory arrangement can be made. H.E. directs that the offer to hand over the Synagogue & the Temple Committee the site & sum and that the amount already paid by or on their behalf therein be refunded.
