FOR ORDERS.

In his G.O. no. 1013. dated 11.7.89.
The pet^r, Lakshmi Rani the Valia Rani of the Edavalath which she had the

of Govt, a copy of a similar pet^r presented to it by the same pet^r: in this a copy of the Chari's order of Nov. 89. is enclosed.

In G.O. 73. dated 27 Jan. 90.

like them had been receiving the allowance, objects to the new arrangement, on the grounds that Vena Varma Rajah has not assumed the management of his
 -house and has not been proved to have attained his majority.

There seems to be no doubt from the C's pro-
 -that Vena Varma Rajah is over 18 yrs, and the order passed is therefore strictly in accordance with the arrangements provided in G.O. 1397 dated June 78.
 (Please see the Valia Rajah's letter - pet no. 5240 of 1880 - portion marked) It is therefore submitted that there are no reasons for modifying the order of Jan. 27. 90.

2. The late Senior Rajah in a letter to the Collr dated the 16th April 1879 desired that the payments due to the branch Kovilayams should be made to the Senior adult male member of the respective branches, but this proposal was not noticed separately in the Collector's letter dated the 22-4-79 1888, in which the matter was submitted for sanction. G.O. dated the 30-6-79 sanctioned only the proposed division of the allowance and Even this division ~~the Government~~ was declared not to be successor of the Rajah at due to the branch Kovilayams.

Some have been drawn in the receipt of the elder male member there or if there are no males or if they be deceased then in the receipt of the elder female member there.
This provision as one of the conditions in the settlement was objected to by the Govt. and an order to the effect that the arrangement should be carried out as per the order of 1879 was not binding on the successors of the deceased Rajahs.
The Collector
has not agreed to have been done. This order.
The petition states that although there are adult males in some of the Kovilayams in 1879 when the Govt. order its order payments have always been made to the Senior male. Payments have since been made to the eldest or youngest male member until now.
