NOTE FOR THE ^{Mr} Petrusen Foundation

you will have by this time read my second note re: the Judicial Co. Their abstracts are herewith sent; but they don't seem to be of much use. Co.
11-11-89 N^o 1915 cannot at present be traced in the Judicial Dept. Mr. Coombes has promised to make a further search especially as the Board too seems to want it urgently.

NOTE FOR THE ~~Returnable~~ ~~Muzdalum~~

cc. Memo was sent to the Judicial Dept for the papers referred to in the Memo.
Mr. Coombes says that one of the papers was supplied to us a day or two back and that the paper is not available.
Please see among the papers sent down for disposal whether the G.O. referred to was put up by mistake (especially among those papers that were sent down on Monday evening).

NOTE FOR THE ^{Mr} Retnawgh Mudalyar
re: enc 4659

It now appears that the Judicial papers applied for in connexion with the above current were mislaid somewhere in the Judicial Dept and had never been sent to our Dept. Mr Mr Coombes positively assured me that they were sent some long ago and that on Monday last

I had tight work, I was afraid that I might have put it up by mistake ^{with some current or other} and sent down to the Madras office. As the San Dec seem to be urgently wanted by the Board, it is not known in what connexion; so it Mr Coombes says that they cannot be sent tomorrow.
