ENCLOSURE.

PROCEEDINGS of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 12th August 1890, No. 5069, Mis.

MR. H. W. BLISS.

Read—the following letter from the Collector of Nilgiris, dated 19th July 1890, No. 308 :—

On 11th May 1888, a loan of Rs. 500 under the Agriculturists' Loans Act XII of 1884 was made to Mr. Lawson Morgan on the security of his lands, aggregating acres 42·99, situated in Kodanád and Thuneri villages, for the purpose of planting coffee and erecting buildings for cattle.

2. Mr. Morgan bound himself by bond drawn in the prescribed form to repay the loan in two equal instalments of Rs. 250 each payable at expiry of 1st and 2nd years, respectively, from date of loan. The first instalment, Rs. 250, fell due during the year 1888-89 and was duly recovered from Mr. Morgan and credited in the treasury together with interest thereon up to date of payment as stipulated in the bond.

The Board's ruling. "Arable" is term used for cultivable waste in the Act. Land on which coffee is planted comes, therefore, within the description 'arable land'.

Dec. 24-10.

The Hon'ble Mr. Grose applies by reference to Sec 4 Cl XII of 84 & the penalty depends on the question whether the word 'arable' in that section means 'cultivable'.

Note. Hon. Mr. Grose has remarked that the word 'arable' is used in the act in the sense of cultivable.

Cl

but I do not see to what provision of the Act he refers. Sec. 3 of the Land Improvement Act, XXVI of 1871 which XX is repealed by the Agriculturists Loans Act (XII of 1884) is worded exactly like sec. 4 of the latter Act.
