Sir

With reference to your official Memorandum, No 22 of yesterdays date, we have the honor to inform you that the Cask Fuse oil, marked F.O., enquired for therein, which was carried on deck at Shippers risk, as per Special Clause in Bill of Lading, broke adrift from its lashings, at an early stage of the voyage, through the rough weather experienced by the Vessel; to avoid its endangering other cargo, it was discharged, as per extract from the Ships log, which we enclose, in support of the Statement, this document will enable you to recover the claim from the underwriters, if the package is insured.

Extract of Log of S/S Johannisberger.

10 August 1891. Midnight, off the Ile of Ushant, whilst rolling heavily with a high sea and rough weather, a Cask of Fusel oil, marked. F. O. broke adrift from its lashings, on deck, and was rolling about the decks in the heavy sea, which was shipped at the time; to avoid its causing damage in general to the Steamer and other Cargo in its vicinity, it was found necessary to destroy it, which was done.

SIR,

I enclose copies of a letter from Messrs Arbuthnot & C, Madras, to the Agent for Government Consignments, and of the log of the "S/S Johannesberger", from which it will be seen that one of the seventeen Casks of Fusel oil has been lost at sea, through "stress of weather," and I would suggest that, for the future, all similar Consignments should be insured. I would also recommend that all quinine and febrifuge despatched by this Department, ~~and~~ when sent by sea, as for instance to Ceylon, should also be insured.

I have the honor to be

G.O. misc. No 599 dt 21st November 1891

~~The Govt considers~~

~~that~~, as under the Resn of the Govt of India (Dept of Finance and Commerce) No 3742 dt 22nd July 1889 communicated with G.O. 6575 misc. dt 14th Oct: 1889, provision is ~~being~~ made for insurance and departmental charges in all the indents for stores, submitted to the Secy of State, ~~for Stores charged~~ and it may therefore be presumed that ~~to be presumed and Govt further~~ consignments received from the Indian Office are ~~to be presumed to be duly~~ insured. ~~and that it is therefore~~ unnecessary to make any special suggestion in this behalf to the Secy. of State.

2. In the present case the casks of fusel oil were received in compliance with Mr Lawson's indent of 6th Dec: 1890, wherein provision was made for insurance charges. The Director General of Stores will now accordingly be informed of the loss sustained and he requested to state whether the cost cost of the cask of oil can be recovered ~~from anybody~~ by the India office.

3. Mr Lawson's proposal to insure ~~the~~ articles ~~that will be~~ despatched by him to Ceylon and other places is approved and sanctioned, on the understanding that the charges incurred are debited to the Consignee's account.

4. The following letter will be despatched to the Director General of Stores, India Office.
