Sattenapalle taluk.	Rs. 300 per mensem, or Rs. 3,600 a-year.	In 1846. By British Government.	E.M.C. of 8th November 1845, No. 1245.	In lieu of lands resumed.	Manoory Gopalrayanam Garu.	Manoory Venkatakristna Rao, grandson, died on 20th December 1886.	No. 1. Deceased Rs. 150 2. Venkata Bhujunga Ramanayya Rao 150 Nos. 1 and 2 pay Rs. 25 each to Godavaramma and Rs. 25 are paid by No. 1 to one Venkuboyamah.	Age. 1. Bharatamma, widow 34 2. Venkata Bhujunga Ramanayya Rao uncle 63 3. Godavaramma, grandmother 22 4. Venkuboyamah, stepmother 22	No other means but the allowance.	Manoory Venkatakristna Rao, who was in receipt of a monthly pension of Rs. 300, died on 20th December 1886. He was the representative of that branch of the Manoory family from whom that portion of the late Guntur district, now known as Sattenapalle taluk, was taken over by British Government. The members of this family held the office of Mazundar and Sheristadar of Murtuja Nagar circle during the Mahomedan Government under Fermanahs granted by it. When the taluks of Murtuja Nagar circle were divided by the zemindars of Vasireddi, Malra and Manoory families, Sattenapalle portion fell to the share of Manoory Venkatasamurao Garu, marked (A) in the accompanying genealogical tree.

2. After the Guntur circle was assumed by the British Government in 1788, the permanent settlement was made in 1802 with Venkatasamurao Rao, marked (B), third son of (A), and a sanad was accordingly granted to him.

3. After the death of (B) his son Gopalrayanam Garu, marked (C), succeeded. The liabilities on the estate during his time having greatly increased, the Government held the estate under attachment from 1836. No better prospects having appeared in the estate, the Government deemed it desirable to recall the sanads, to take the entire estate into their hands and to fix a certain allowance to the family for maintenance.

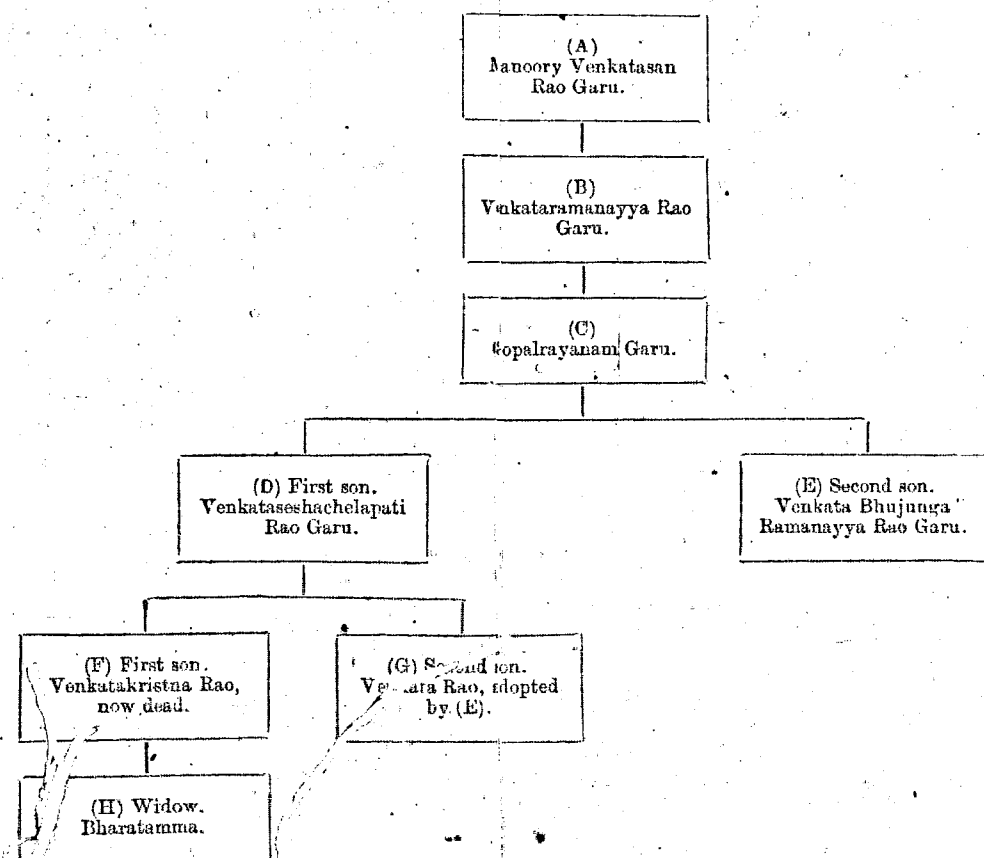

4. The Government have accordingly sanctioned an allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem to Gopalrayanam Garu marked (C)—vide E.M.C. of 8th November 1845, and the same after his death was inherited by his eldest son Venkateshachalapati Rao, marked (D)—see G.O., No. 1240, of 6th November 1873.

After the death of the latter, the allowance was sanctioned (Board's Proceedings, dated 5th March 1885, No. 712, in the name of his first son Venkatakristna Rao, now dead. The following are the members left by the deceased:—(1) Bharatamma, widow; (2) Venkata Bhujunga Ramanayya Rao, paternal uncle; (3) Godavaramma, paternal grandmother; (4) Venkuboyamah, stepmother. Panugunti Subbarao Pantulu, father-in-law of the deceased and father and guardian of the claimant No. 1, requests that the allowance may be continued in the name of his widowed daughter on condition of her continuing to pay all the sub-pensioners Nos. 2, 3, and 4 as her husband has done, and alleges that the deceased, his son-in-law, has left a will authorizing his widow No. 1 to adopt a son. No. 2 prays that the allowance may be transferred to his name subject to the same conditions. No. 4 also makes the same request as No. 2.

5. All these claims having been referred to the Sub-Collector for inquiry and report, he recommended that the allowance of Rs. 150 hitherto enjoyed by No. 2 as per column 8 of the statement be continued to him on the condition of his paying Rs. 25 to his mother, No. 3, as heretofore and a separate permanent payable order issued in his name; that a separate permanent payable order for the remaining sum of Rs. 150 be obtained in the name of the deceased's widow, No. 1, subject to the payment of Rs. 25 to Godavamma, No. 3, and Rs. 25 to Venkuboyamah, No. 4. According to a Revenue circular published by Mr. Knox, the late Acting Collector, no major pensioner is paid until he produces receipts taken from his sub-pensioners in token of the payment having been made to them. The Government in their Order, No. 1720 of 2nd October 1871, pronounced that the pensions granted to the zemindars of the late Guntur district are inheritable by heirs, natural or adopted, without limitation in perpetuity. Therefore the pension enjoyed by the deceased descends to his heir and is not liable to partition among his sub-pensioners. The Sub-Collector's recommendation does not seem to be in accordance with the above. The widow being the nearest heir possessing authority from the deceased for adoption of a son, I think the deceased's pension should descend to her and her alone, subject to all the conditions under which it has been paid to the deceased.

When the Répalle estate was sold for arrears of peshcush in 1841 and bought in along with certain other estates by Government, an allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem was sanctioned in the name of Zanganna Row, who enjoyed it until his death in 1876. The allowance was then renewed in the name of his son Venkata Gopala Row, subject to a deduction of Rs. 50 a month payable for life to his step-mother. By the terms of despatch No. 1 of 1849 of the late Court of Directors, the stipends of the five ex-Zemindars of the Guntur district (of which this is one) were considered hereditary so long as the family was represented by lineal descendants in the male line including adoptive. The Government have since pronounced that the pensions are inheritable by heirs, either natural or adopted, without limitation in perpetuity.— et c. O., dated 2nd October 1871, No. 1720. Accordingly, on the death of Venkata Gopala Row on 22nd October 1883, and of his step-mother Lakshmayya on 16th December 1883, the Government, in their Order, No. 246, dated 19th February 1884, sanctioned the sum total of their allowances, viz., Rs. 300, in the name of Gopala Row's widow Tirumalamma Garu, the present holder, and to descend to any son she might adopt. While the Malrazu estate of the late Guntur district was under attachment for arrears of peshcush, an allowance of Rs. 1,000 per mensem was sanctioned in E. M. C. of 23rd May 1839, No. 694, in the name of Malrazu Lakshmayya, widow of late Venkata Gunda Row. The estate having then been sold with five others for arrears of revenue due to Government, and the widow having died, the Secretary of State, in his despatch No. 6 of 16th February 1864, embodied in Government Order, dated 2nd April 1864, No. 550, sanctioned the payment of an allowance of Rs. 800 per mensem to her adopted son Venkata Kondal Row and et c. his male descendants. Under the ruling of 1871 quoted in the case of Manikya Row Tirumalamma Garu, No. 9 above, the stipend was continued to Kondal Row's adopted son, the present incumbent— vide order quoted in column 9, but on the complaint of his adoptive mother Lakshmi Venkayamma Row of ill-treatment from her adopted son Venkata Narasimha Row, a sum of Rs. 240 out of the main allowance of Rs. 800 was ordered to be separately paid for her life or until further orders from the Government. Order, dated 3rd February 1883, No. 165, Revenue.

After the management of the Guntur Circle was assumed by the British Government in 1788, permanent settlement was made in 1802 with Venkatesam's third son Veekatarunanyya Row Gari, grandfather of 4th son Janakiyayuan Gari, grandfather of the present holder, a monthly allowance of Rs. 333 per mensem to be paid through the Collector of the Guntur district and charged to the estate. On the death of Janakiyayuan Gari, his allowance of Rs. 333 continued in the name of his second son Venkata Kondal Row (the first son having died issueless) who used to pay Rs. 72 to Lakshmidewamma, his brother's widow, under a private agreement. Subsequently the estate was brought under Government management and Venkata Kondal Row's allowance was reduced from Rs. 333 to Rs. 160, Lakshmidewamma's allowance being at the same time proportionately reduced to Rs. 36. On the death of Venkata Kondal Row his widow was allowed to continue to live. When Ammakamma died, her allowance was reversioned to Lakshmidewamma on a separate P. P. order for life. By Government Order, No. 379, of 14th April 1867, deduction of Rs. 36 payable to Lakshmidewamma on the present holder's side Government Order, viz., Rs. 36 per mensem, renewed in the name of her adopted son Janaki Row, the present holder's wife Government Order, No. 379, of 14th April 1867, on the same conditions.
