MEMORANDUM.

Read again—

Official memorandum, dated 22nd July 1886, No. 1188 C.
" " " 15th October 1888, No. 1007.

Secretaries to Government and Heads of departments are requested to submit, confidentially, to the undersigned, the names of any native subordinates whom they wish to recommend for titles. Recommendations should be accompanied by full particulars as to the antecedents of the persons recommended, their social position, and the special services which merit recognition; names should be given in full.

2. Officers are also requested to revise carefully the recommendations already made in their respective departments in the case of all those upon whom no title has hitherto been conferred.

3. Careful selection is essential and the present memorandum must not be regarded as an invitation to submit names unless there are good reasons for the grant of titles in recognition of high merit and capacity.

4. It will be incumbent on officers submitting recommendations to keep the Chief Secretary informed in future of any events in the official career of their nominees which render them unfit for the bestowal of a title as well as of all changes in their appointments. Retirements from the service of Government and deaths should be immediately reported.

5. Replies to this memorandum should reach the undersigned by the 1st June. 12 APR 92
