9TH MARCH 1892, N. 7, REVENUE.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 23rd February 1892, Ms. No. 1302 :—

THE HON. MR. J. GROSE.

Read—the following letter from J. THOMPSON, Esq., Collector of Chingleput District, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Land Revenue, dated Saidápet, 8th January 1892, Ref. on No. 5772-Eng. :—

In submitting the usual report showing the particulars of the heirs of a deceased yeomiah pensioner, Latchmyammal of Kakalur village, in the Tiruvallur taluk, I have the honour to state that she was receiving a yeomiah of Rs. 33 per annum for services (lighting lamps and performing daily worship) connected with Sanjeevarayan temple in the zemin Kakalur village. She died on the 2nd July 1891, and her younger brother, Venkatramanachari, applies for the issue of a fresh certificate in his name as the only heir of the deceased.

2. On inquiry it is found that the deceased has left no relations but the petitioner, and that until her death she was living under his protection. He produces a will executed by the deceased in his favour on 2nd March 1891.

3. As the Tahsildar reports that the services are still kept up by the petitioner, and as the grant is for so long, I beg to recommend the transfer of the allowance to him.

4. The certificate and the will executed by the deceased are herewith submitted.

ENCLOSURE.

APPLICATION for the continuance of yeomiah allowance in favour of Venkatramanachari residing at Conjeeveram taluk, Chingleput district.
