Department.

SIR,

(H.L. & P.S.)

In continuation of paragraph 4 of Sir Edward Buck's letter No. 276-280 H.B. & A.S. dated the 11th May last, I am directed to forward for information and communication (confidentially) to Veterinary Captain R. W. Burke the proposed rules for the Civil Veterinary Department. The rules have been forwarded to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India and will not be formally issued until his Lordship's orders have been received. Except as regards leave and pension, however, they will be acted upon in anticipation of their publication. The provisions embodied in the rules relating to pay and allowances have already been sanctioned and are ~~in force~~ in force.

2. It will be read that under rules 5 and 7 every officer appointed to the Civil Veterinary Department whether in Civil employ or not at the date of his appointment will be allowed a year to complete his term of service in the Department and that in the event of his electing within this period to return to Military Service he will revert to the position which he occupied in the Army Veterinary Department previous to his appointment to the Civil Veterinary Department.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant,

Reman Singh

Offg. Under-Secretary.

Strictly Confidential.

PROPOSED RULES FOR THE CIVIL VETERINARY DEPARTMENT.

1. Candidates for employment in the Civil Veterinary Department should submit their applications through the Principal Veterinary Officer in India to the Inspector General, Civil Veterinary Department.
2. A list of candidates, approved by the Government of India in the Military and Revenue and Agricultural Departments, will be maintained in the Office of the Inspector General, Civil Veterinary Department.
3. No officer shall be eligible for the Civil Veterinary Department unless he has served at least three years in the Army Veterinary Department.
4. The selection of officers for particular appointments will be made by the Government of India with the concurrence of the Local Government or Administration concerned.
5. At any time within one year after joining the appointment, the selected officer may elect to return to military service, but thereafter the right of voluntary reversion ceases.
6. It shall be in the option of the Local Government or Administration to return an Army Veterinary Officer serving under it in the Civil Veterinary Department to the Military Department at any time within one year if he fails to pass an examination by the lower standard in the vernacular of the province, or for any other reason; or at the end of three years if he fails to pass an examination by the higher standard; or at any time, with the sanction of the Government of India, for neglect of duty or misconduct, or for other reasons approved by the Government of India.
7. An officer who elects to return or who is returned to military duty under rules 5 and 6 within the year of probation will revert to the position which he occupied in the Army Veterinary Department previous to his appointment to the Civil Veterinary Department. In any other case, unless the Governor General in Council shall otherwise order, he will be liable to remain on the Unattached List till employment can be found for him.
8. An officer reverting under rule 5 or Local Governments returning an officer under rule 6 within the year of probation will give sufficient notice to the military authorities to enable them to provide a substitute from the Army Veterinary Department to replace the officer reverting or being returned. Such officer, until the substitute is provided, will continue to be borne on the strength of the Civil Veterinary Department.
9. An officer who accepts permanent appointment in the Civil Veterinary Department must elect for continuous civil employment in India, subject only to the liability to temporary return to military duty in the event of serious war.
10. The confirmation of an officer in his appointment at the end of the year of probation in the Civil Veterinary Department will require the approval of the Government of India.
11. Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department will be liable to transfer from one appointment to another or from one province to another. They will be under the control of the Local Government under whom they are serving for the time being; but in all matters connected with the choice, management and location of stallions purchased from Imperial funds for army purposes, they shall be under the orders of the Government of India in the Military Department through the Inspector General of the Civil Veterinary Department.

11. The Civil Veterinary Department as at present constituted will comprise the following appointments :—

1. Inspector General, Civil Veterinary Department.	Imperial Officers.	10. Professor, Lahore Veterinary College, Punjab.	Provincial Officers.
2. Superintendent, Imperial Bacteriological Survey.		11. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, North Punjab.
3. Clinical Assistant to Imperial Bacteriologist.		12. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, South Punjab.
4. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Madras.		13. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Derajat (Punjab) and Beluchistan.
5. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Bombay.	Provincial Officers.	14. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Central Provinces and Berar.
6. Principal, Veterinary College, Bombay.		15. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Burma.
7. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal.		16. Principal, Ajmere Veterinary School, Rajputana States.
8. Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, North-Western Provinces and Oudh.		17. Furlough.
9. Principal, Lahore Veterinary College, Punjab.		18. Furlough.

12. The appointment of Inspector General will, whenever an eligible officer is available, be filled from the ranks of the Civil Veterinary Department.

13. The salary of civil veterinary officers will consist of the Indian Military pay and allowances of rank and a staff or civil allowance on the following scale :—

	Indian Military pay and allowances. Rs.	Civil allowances. Rs.
Veterinary Lieutenant—
Under 5 years' service	... 400	150
After 5 years' service	... 450	200
After 10 years' service	... 500	250
Veterinary Captain	... 600	300
After 5 years' service in that class	... 650	350
Veterinary Major—
After 10 years' service as Veterinary Captain...	750	400

Army veterinary officers serving in the Civil Veterinary Department will be entitled to the Military rank and title conferred on Army Veterinary Officers by the Royal Warrant, dated 26th September 1891.

The salary and rank of the Inspector General of the Civil Veterinary Department will correspond with those of the Principal Veterinary Officer in India, his total emoluments being Rs. 1,620 a month irrespective of rank in the army.

14. The following appointments will carry with them the additional local allowances noted opposite each :—

	Rs.
Principal, Bombay Veterinary College ...	... 100 a month.
" Lahore " " ...	... 100 "
Veterinary Superintendent, Burma ...	... 100 "
Superintendent, Bacteriological Survey ...	... 50 "

15. Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department will be seconded from the Army Veterinary Department in which they will retain their rank and commissions. Their names also will be retained in italics in the Army List, and their promotion, so far as it may be regulated by seniority, will correspond with that which they would have received in the Army Veterinary Department.

Promotions in army rank of civil veterinary officers will be determined on the principles laid down in articles 400-402 of the Royal Warrant of 1891 and on the recommendation of the Inspector General, Civil Veterinary Department, submitted through the recognized channels to the War Office. Officers will be required to qualify themselves for such promotion by passing the examination prescribed for veterinary officers of the Army Veterinary Department.

16. The leave and leave allowances of civil veterinary officers will be regulated by the rules in the Civil Service Regulations (Chapter XIII) applicable to military officers subject to the Civil leave rules with the following special conditions :—

- Officers on ordinary furlough will draw half the pay of their military rank plus half their civil allowances.
- Officiating officers will draw the pay of their military rank plus half the civil allowance attached to that rank.
- Civil veterinary officers shall be treated, in applying the rules mentioned, as if they had before entering the civil department been subject to the leave rules for the Staff Corps (1886) from the date of their arrival in India.

17. The maximum pension which may be earned by a civil veterinary officer will be £450 per annum subject to the following conditions :—

- No officer of the department will become qualified for pension under the scale now fixed for the Civil Veterinary Department until he has rendered ten years' service in the department.
- The pension for thirty years' service, military and civil combined, will be £450 a year, and that for shorter periods of service will bear the same proportion to £450 that the service of the officer bears to thirty years.
- In the thirty years required to qualify for the highest pension five years may have been on leave. For shorter periods leave will count as service qualifying towards pension in the same proportion to five years as the service bears to thirty years.
- Retirement will be optional after twenty years' service and allowed on medical certificate after fifteen years' service.

Officers retiring before having completed ten years' service in civil employment will be dealt with under military rules for pension or gratuity.

The rules in the Civil Service Regulations relating to the compulsory retirement of military officers in civil employ upon attaining the age of fifty-five years will apply to army veterinary officers in the Civil Veterinary Department (see Article 679, Civil Service Regulations).

18. Travelling allowances will be granted to Civil Veterinary Department officers under the Civil Service Regulations, the principal rates under which are, double first class fares for journeys by railway, eight annas a mile for journeys by road, and Rs. 5 a day for halts.

19. Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department called upon to serve with an army in the field will be entitled to the privileges of their army rank and will retain the pay and allowances drawn by them in the civil department. Such service will count for leave and pension in the same way as service rendered in the civil department.

20. Officers of the Civil Veterinary Department are debarred from private practice without the permission of the Local Government under whom they may be serving.

21. No officer of the Civil Veterinary Department will be permitted to associate himself with horse-dealing or horse-racing.
