GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 3rd June 1892, Mis. No. 1199 :—

THE HON. MR. H. W. BLISS.

Read—the following letter from HERBERT BRADLEY, Esq., Acting Collector of Kurnool, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Kurnool, 19th May 1892, No. 3586 :—

I have the honour to report that Poligar Pensioner Boda Surayya referred to in G.O., Mis. No. 4395, Revenue, * dated

* Vide appendix to this Government Order, 21st August 1885, communicated with Board's Proceedings, No. 3381, dated 1st

December 1885, died on the 2nd August

1891. The pension being a hereditary one, I have, under the authority conferred by Board's Circular No. 4762, dated 3rd September 1861, registered as the next holder Venkata Chennayya alias Chennayya, infant son of the deceased. One Boda Veerayya, step-brother of the deceased's father, preferred a claim to a moiety of the pension on the ground that the deceased allowed him a half share of it, but there is no reason to admit his claim.

2. A tabular statement is enclosed giving particulars of the pension and showing the claims of the proposed holder.

ENCLOSURE.

TABULAR statement giving particulars of the pension enjoyed by Poligar Pensioner Boda Surayya, Permanent Pay Order No. 509—vide Board's Proceedings, No. 5035, dated 6th August 1884.

I.	Kurnool district, Markapur taluk; hereditary pension per annum Rs. 312-3-4.	Poligar pension granted by the Government in its order, dated 12th July 1891, to Boda Chennappa as entered in Hosse register No. 24 of the Cuddapah district.	Poligar.	Boda Surayya, grandson (son's son) of the late original grantee, died on the 24th August 1891.	The deceased enjoyed the entire pension, but Boda Veerayya, a divided uncle of the deceased, claims half a share, but the Taluk sildar does not support it.	Venkatachennayya alias Cinnayya, son of the deceased aged 3 years. (2) Venkamaiah, widow of the deceased, aged about 25 years; (3) Boda Veerayya, step-son of the deceased's father, aged about 55 years and his sons (1) Narasayya, 28 years old, (2) Malayya, 20 years, (3) Chennayya, 12 years, (4) Pappayya, aged 10 years, (5) Chinna Pappayya, aged 8 years and his daughters (1) Ambamma, aged 25 years, (2) Veeramamah, aged 10 years.	The pension is hereditary and payable during good behaviour to lineal descendants. The son being the next lineal heir, the pension is ordered to be registered in his name.	G.O., dated 21st August 1885, No. 4395, Revenue, directed the omission of pies from the pension noted in column 2. This change which has hitherto escaped notice, apparently on account of its trifling nature, will be carried out on receipt of a fresh permanent pay order from the Accountant-General, whose attention has been drawn to the above Government Order.

Resolution—dated 3rd June 1892, Mis. No. 1199.

Transferred to Government, Revenue Department, to whom this should have been addressed.

(True Copies and Extract.)

(Signed) H. A. SIM,
Acting Secretary.

with letter and enclosures in original.

Copy to the Collector of Kurnool.

ORDER—dated 21st June 1892, No. 633, Revenue

Miscellaneous.

The continuance of the pension in the name of Venkata Chennayya alias Chennayya, son of the deceased pensioner, is approved and sanctioned.

2. With reference to his remarks in column 9 of the tabular statement, the Collector of Kurnool is informed that in its order, dated 21st August 1885, No. 4395, the Government did not direct the omission of pies, but pointed out that pies had been omitted in a few cases in the list of money allowances then submitted.
