SIR,

With reference to para 3 of G. O. No 1252 dated the 13. December 1892. Revenue. I have the honor to inform you that the Report of the Collector of Chingleput was not sent with the others, as the substance of it had already been given in my Annual Administration Report vide page 5 para 21 (b). A copy of the Collector's Report is now enclosed.

2. No Report on the subject has been received from the Collector of South Canara.

3. It is proposed to send to the Collector of every District a copy of the accompanying form which, when filled up, will I think give all the information that Government desire to have.

4. During the present year there has been a considerable increase in the number of leeches sent out; the number up to date being 1101 against 370 sent out last year.

I have the honor to be
Sir
