Sir;

Adverting to your letters Nos. 4145 and 4725 of 17-8-93 & 20-9-93. respectively, I am directed to furnish herewith copies of the marginally noted orders of this Govt, asked for by His Highness the Marquis minister and to state, with reference to his request to be furnished with a copy of Mr Gillman's report, that as this Govt has on further consideration arrived at the opinion that a local enquiry in respect of the Bhadrachalam and Rekapalle taluks is unnecessary for the settlement of the boundary question and has addressed the Govt of India accordingly, this Govt's reply to the Minister's requisition will be deferred until the further orders of the Govt of India has been received.

2. With reference to the second of the papers furnished above (viz - G.O. 729-1-85 No 122) I am to request that the attention of the Mysore's Govt may be invited to the order of this Govt No. 460 & 17-6-90 (copy enclosed) from para 5 (1) of which it will be seen that the instruction issued in the earlier order of 1885 directing the exclusion of river-bed lands from the settlement of the talukas of Bhadrachalam & Rekapalle was subsequently modified and the inclusion of those lands ordered, on its being represented by the Collector of Godavari (para 5 of his letter at page 2 of the Govt order no 460 of 1890) that the previous orders of this Govt were based on a misconception; that not only were river-bed lands being customarily cultivated by the villagers on the British side, but that areas of river-bed adjoining our bank were registered in the 'Missels' of certain river side villages at the settlement of 1867; that, in particular, the village of Warjib-ul-waz had a clause which declared the right of the proprietors to every thing which grows on the sandy land below the river bank and that no question had till then arisen regarding those lands.

was
