Draft D.O. reminder to the Collector of S. Arcot re: a petition against
Dy. Collector Rajamuttu Mudaliar

official grade in this division and there is nobody to take heed of this and call upon the delinquents to account for their mis-deeds. Things are mismanaged and the public have the worst time of it.

Complaints against him (Dy. Collr) are taken no notice of because his father-in-law is the Board's Shenshtadar. He does not act independently but is guided by his subordinates in almost all official matters. The Jamabandy conducted by him was a most shabby affair and a jobbery, his subordinates in office having profited themselves to a very large extent. In a forest case the Tahsildar got Rs 500 and let off the culprit and when the forest officer brought this to the notice of the Collector the latter ordered his Deputy to enquire into the case.
Having got as bribe a necklace of souvenirs worth about Rs 100/- the Dy. Collector promised to report on the matter favourably to the Collector. This is a typical case.
The truth of all these complaints can be ascertained by careful enquiry and perusal of the records of some of the cases decided by the Deputy Collector. The petitioners pray that this may be done.

SUBJECT.

Complaining against the General Duty, Deputy Collector of Hallakurichi and his subordinates in the Division.

Note

This petition is a copy of that addressed to the Collector of South Arcot.

The petitioners beg to bring to notice the following:—

Raja Ratna Mudaliar the General Duty Dy. Collector in charge of the taluks of Hallakurichi and Tirukoilur is quite ignorant of magt and revenue work and takes a long time in deciding the cases brought up before him (the delay in certain cases extending to 3, 6 and even 12 months) and after all decides them in the most improper and unjust way. His subordinates take advantage of his ignorance in official matters, laugh at him behind his back, do things in their own way and profit themselves as much as possible. Two of the Revenue Inspectors in the Deputy Collector's division by name Annachala Aiyar and Guvinasa Aiyar in some recent official transactions got over 5000 Rs.

Ramakrishna Pillai the Tahsildar of "this" (Hallakurichi) taluk has also had his share of the profits. He has already made a little fortune of between 4000 and 5000 Rs, and has bought up all the paddy available in the market.
Neither are his gumastaks, Kupp-ma Ras, Polima Row and Murshari Vaick behindhand in turning this opportunity to their best account.
Thus corruption prevails from the highest to the lowest in the official
