For orders.

The annual Peiscush payable by the Zemindar is Rs 3,18,877 and the Road-cess will be about Rs 45,000. It would appear from para. 2 of the Collr letter that the amount due from the Zemindar for the current fasli on account of both Peishcush and Road-cess is Rs 80,000.

P.V.S.

This proposal to allow Zemindar to collect Peishcush, as it was not alleged for purposes of Relief. I do not think the Zemindar is entitled to any consideration. He owes to the State many lakhs of rupees & ought to have paid them long ago. If he is allowed to keep back the Peishcush now due by him, he will be able to spend it on litigation, & the Government will be the sufferers. I think the Collr should be instructed to refuse the request.

3. It is presumed that the sum of one lakh of rupees which was set apart for relief works (vide G.O. 6 March last no 922) has now been taken to credit of Peishcush, as it was not utilized for purposes of relief.
