P.T.O

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper :—

From the District Magistrate, Malabar, dated 10th July 1893 No. 8782, reporting on the conduct of J Govindan, Stationary Sub-Magistrate, Ernad, in an alleged conspiracy of the Moplahs to murder the Adhigari of Pandikad and certain heirs of Nemmini.

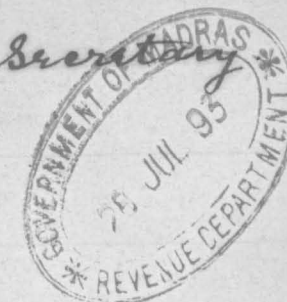

Order 26 July 1893 No. 1505

The Government cannot take the lenient view of this case adopted by the District Magistrate. Whether J. Govindan was joking or not, he signed an order in his Magisterial capacity addressed to a Police Officer directing that a certain individual should be kept in custody. His act was inexcusable and he will be suspended for six months.

2. It appears that Colonel Porteous is dealing with the case of the Inspector Cheyi Kutti
