No. 23. ORDER THEREON, No. 46; dated 12th January 1858.

With the Proceedings above recorded, the Board of Revenue submit a letter from the Acting Collector of Malabar, reporting that he has been unable as yet to take measures for revising the assessment of the Pattamby Hobly in that District, as directed in Extract Minutes Consultation 22d May 1857, No. 485, from the want of experienced Covenanted Agency; and states his intention of shortly attending to the subject himself. The Board suggest the temporary employment in the District of one of the officers who have lately arrived from England, with the view of affording assistance to the Collector. The Government remark that the re-assessment of the lands above referred to is not a question that can be properly disposed of by an officer unacquainted with the district, and they will be better satisfied to wait the promised investigation into the matter by Mr. Robinson himself.

(Signed) H. FORBES,
Acting Secretary to Government.
