Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 8th January 1858.

No. 40. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue; dated 31 December 1857, No. 4306.

Read letter from the Acting Collector of Malabar

In Consultation 3rd December 1857. dated 29th October 1857.

(Here enter No. 166.)

Resolved that the above letter be submitted for the orders of Government.

2. The right to be considered first Rajah of the Kooroomhenaad family has been in dispute between two individuals Veera Warma Rajah and Rama Warma Rajah.

3. The claims of the latter were considered strongest by Mr. Conolly, and since 1852 he has drawn the Malikhana of Rupees 4,000† ap-
 †Vide Enclosure in letter from Collector 11th March 1846 in Board's Proceedings 6th April 1846. pertaining to the senior Rajah. The Sub-Court has however recently decided that Vecra Warma Rajah is the rightful senior, and the Acting Collector requests permission to register the allowance in his name.

4. It is not stated whether the permission of Government was obtained for the institution of the suit, but the Board presume this was the case as the allowance clearly comes within the scope of Regulation IV. of 1831.

5. An Appeal was preferred from the decision of the Sub-Court but withdrawn, the parties having mutually agreed to divide the allowance. The Acting Collector however has refused to recognise this arrangement as neither party is declared to be the head of the family.

6. In their Proceedings dated 27th Ultimo, No. 4225, on the difference, among the Caurte-naad family, the Board have adverted to the importance originally attached to the position of Senior Rajah, and though they presume the arguments in favor of that course have now lost much of their force, it seems desirable still to uphold that arrangement, and the Acting Collector evidently considers its retention of importance.

7. Under these circumstances, the Board recommend that the Acting Collector's proceedings be upheld and that the decree holder Koorombyadry Ranangalam Kovilagam Veera Warma Rajah be registered as senior Rajah of the family.

The right to be considered

4 It is not stated whether the permission of Government was obtained for the institution of the suit but the Board presume this was the case as the allowance clearly comes within the scope of Reg. IV of 1831.

5 An appeal was preferred from the decision of the Sub Court but withdrawn, the parties having mutually agreed to divide the allowance. The Acting Collector however has refused to recognize this arrangement as neither party is declared to be the Head of the Family.
