From the Commission for investigating
Public Establishments.

To the Secretary to Government, Revenue Dept.
Fort St George.

Sir.

This Commission being about to investigate the Establishment of the Collector of Sea Customs, and being aware that the subject has already engaged the attention of Government I have the honor to request that you will furnish me at your earliest convenience with any information which your department may enable you to supply - Mr Dundellon himself superintended some of the investigations to which I refer, officials from the Custom House were examined, and the information I am now requesting, includes the papers then prepared, the results of the verbal explanations given, and any other data of similar character.

I have the honor to be
Sir

Your obedient servant
Delicore
President of the Commission
