The Board trust that Government will not restrict them to entertaining the exact number of hands noted above, or to paying each the actual sum specified, as it may be necessary to make further changes from time to time, until the Establishment is placed on a satisfactory footing; they therefore request permission to appropriate the amount (285 Rupees) proposed to be withdrawn from their Moyenzabitah, to the maintenance of a Printing Establishment in such mode as will conduce to an efficient working of the Press.

4. The "Trafalgar" only arrived on the 13th instant and the Board have not yet received their press and type. They have however engaged the Establishment noted in para. 2 and will commence operations as soon as possible. On receipt of their type they will ascertain whether that advertised by Messrs.
