The Acting Agent and Collector has the honor to forward the above application for leave. He does so with regret as Mr Davidson has acquired an intimate knowledge of the district and its inhabitants while his regular and careful business habits his anxiety to do his duty and his general integrity have gained him the Confidence not of his immediate Superior alone but of the people generally.

Should the leave be granted the Acting Agent respectfully begs that the Acting Appointment may be filled up as Soon as it Conveniently can be as this is the busy Season of the year, his Criminal file is a very heavy one, and he has not yet Completely Shaken off the Hoitt fever.
