

Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 9th February 1858.

No. 40. Read the following letter from J. D. SIM, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue; to H. FORBES, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department dated Fort Saint George; 24th December 1857, No. 4678.

SIR,

From Collector 17th February in Cons. 19th March 1857.

Proceedings to Collector 19th March 1857.

From Colbr. 20th May in Cons. 13th Nov. 1857.

From Colbr. 22d June in Cons. 13th Nov. 1857.

Proceedings to Collector 13th November 1857.

From Collector 27th November in Cons. 24th December 1857.

I am directed by the Board of Revenue to submit, for the orders of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, the correspondence noted in the margin, regarding the Pensions granted to Vekramathyea Rajah, a gate watcher, and to Permakaui, an Ooligar, on the establishment of the deposed Poligar of Rannad in the Madura District.

2. On the 17th February 1857, the Acting Collector reported the death on the 2d of the preceding month of Ragoopathy Rajah, who was in the receipt of a Pension of Rupees 2-6-0 per mensem, and recommended the continuance of the allowance to his younger brother S. Narraina Rajah. From the Acting Collector's subsequent report it appears that this allowance which stands in the name of Vekramathyea Rajah and the Pension of 12 annas per mensem, of Permakaui were transferred (without the authority of Government) to Ragoopathy Rajah and Valaayee respectively, the former in consequence of neglect of duty on the part of Vekramathyea Rajah and of the latter on account of the age and infirmity of Permakaui.

3. The relationship of Ragoopathy Rajah to Vekramathyea Rajah is not stated. Valaayee is the daughter of Permakaui, and was appointed at her mother's request.

4. The Pensions in question are included in the sums allowed for Watchers and Ooligars for the Poligar's family, and are entered as Nos. 23 and 27 in Statement B forwarded with the letter of the Collector of Madura, dated 20th May 1850.

Under the foregoing circumstances and as the services of these servants are stated to be necessary for the comfort of the family of the late M. Saithoopathy, the Board of Revenue recommend that sanction be granted for the sums disbursed in Fusly 1265 to the parties mentioned in the enclosure of the Acting Collector's letter dated 22d June 1857, and that the allowances of Rupees 2-6-0 and 12 annas per mensem be continued to S. Narraina Rajah and Valaayee respectively, the former from the date of the decease of Ragoopathy Rajah, and the latter from the 22d May 1857 the date on which Valaayee was nominated to succeed her mother.

(A true Extract.)

(Signed) J. D. SIM, Acting Secretary.

No. 41.

ORDER NUMBER, No. 166; dated 8th February 1858.

Under the explanation furnished in the above letter, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council sanctions the transfer to S. Narraina Rajah and Valaayee, of the allowances of Rs. 2-6 and of Annas 12 per mensem, for service performed for the family of the deposed Poligar of Rannad, the former from the date of decease of Ragoopathy Rajah, and the latter from 22d May 1857.

2. Sanction is also given for the payments made on this account in Fusly 1265 to Ragoopathy Rajah and Valaayee, viz., Rs. 23-12, and Rs. 7-8, respectively.

(Signed) H. FORBES,

Acting Secretary to Government.

 reported the death on the 1st of the preceding month of Rajeswarthy Rajah, who was in the receipt of pension of Rs. 200 per annum, and recommended the continuance of the same to his younger brother, Marudai Rajah. From the Acting Collector subsequent report appears that this allowance which stands in the name of Venniputhy Rajah and the pension of Rs. 200 per annum of Vennipaul were transferred (without the authority of Government) to Rajeswarthy Rajah and Vennipaul respectively, the former in consequence of neglect of duty on the part of

The image shows a close-up of a dark, heavily textured surface, likely the cover or endpaper of an old book. The material appears to be a dark grey or black cloth or paper with a fine, irregular texture. It is covered in numerous scratches, scuffs, and abrasions of varying lengths and directions, giving it a worn and aged appearance. There are also some lighter, irregular patches and areas of discoloration, possibly due to moisture damage or the natural aging process. The overall tone is dark and moody, with a high level of detail in the surface irregularities.
