This is a charitable grant held without any sunnud. In the survey accounts of 1797, it is entered in the name of one Anuntacharry, by whom it was alienated by gift in 1815 to the late incumbent. The family left by the deceased hold other Enams, amounting to Rupees 30-3-0. Besides this, the eldest son is in receipt of a charitable allowance of Rupees 38-0-10 per annum. Considering the nature of the grant, and the means of support possessed by the family, the Board do not feel themselves warranted in proposing the continuance of the Enam as suggested by the Collector, and they accordingly recommend its resumption.
