Tabulan Report of the Lapsed Enams —

Tabular Report of the Lapsed Enams in the District of Salem.

1 Enam Number	2 Taluk and Village, extent and value of the entire Enam	3 When and by whom granted, namely the original grantee, the Sanad under the Seal is in respect of the grant	4 Name of the last holder, date of his decease, and the relationship he bore to the grantee	5 Nature of the grant, Charity or Service, if Service, nature of the duties performed by the grantee	6 When and by whom the Enam was last held by the Inamdar	7 Name of the Inamdar, and the nature of the connection, and the name of Inamdar appointed by them	8 Recommendation of the Collector, and the grounds on which it is made.
1	2 Dumpony Taluk Shrotriy Bagha — 2 39 12 Jain Tank & Temple — 1 1 2 4-3-14 Assessment Rs. 8 Extent 52 14 2 / 5 13 1 / 6-11-3 Judge's Rs. 1-2 / 12-5 / 13-10	3 It is said that this Enam was granted by Jagadavarow, but not known when the Enam was granted. In the survey account the name of "Doongum Vincatarow is entered as the Enamdar. No Sanad is forthcoming.	4 Lutchmamal was the last holder. She is not closely related to the original grantee about 6 years ago this Lutchmamal died.	5 Charity	6 The deceased held the entire Enam	7 No one	8 The Batavanty Enam was registered in the survey in the name of one Doongum Vincatarow. It is not known when and by whom it was granted. It appears that the Enam was never in the enjoyment of the original grantee or his descendants, but that one Vincatarow a relative of the original grantee, had his daughter was for some time in possession of it. The way in which the Enam came into the possession of this person is not known. This actual holder of the Enam Vincatarow died about 30 years ago, leaving a widow named Lutchmamal who enjoyed the Enam for some time. about 6 years ago Lutchmamal died without heirs. The Enam lands have since been left waste. It also appears that the land was uncultivated during the life time of Lutchmamal the last holder. As the Enam is now enfranchised I recommend that it be resumed.
