G. G. No 1263 of 16.9.1858

Book No 17-18

Diary 21-9-1858

Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 21st September 1858.

No. 17. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd September 1858, No. 3346.

In Cons. 2nd Sept. 1858. Read Tabular Report from the Collector of Salem, dated 18th August 1858, of a lapsed Service Enam in the village of Caranda Hully in Denkencottah Talook.

(Here enter No. —.)

The Board concur with the Collector in recommending the resumption of this Enam—nothing being known of its origin—and the service for which it is said to have been granted, being neither appreciated by the people, nor such as Government need perpetuate.

(A true Extract.)

| Deukeweetah Jaboh Enams Kelly | Not known when and by whom granted no document forthcoming in the survey account the name of Hay jin is entered as the Enam dar. | For the service | Nonne of Kelly are the last holders the former is widow of the original Enam dar, and the latter is his widowed daughter in law. Both died within the last 6 months. | The deceased enjoyed the entire Enam. | Nonne | Nonne | Rec'd Wrapper from the Sub-collector of Pulicat dated 28th April 1858 No 62 with its enclosures. This Enam was granted for giving water out open to the Public when a certain Religious Ceremony was to be performed. It is not known when and by whom it was granted. No Document is forthcoming in the survey account it stands registered in the name of one Hay jin who died several years ago. After his death his widow Sumpoolay enjoyed the Enam. Sumpoolay died in July 1855 leaving a widow named Kelly and his widowed mother Nonne. The two widows enjoyed the Enam in equal shares and caused the service to be performed by one Moneyan (Son in law of Kelly) paying him a moiety of the emoluments of the Enam as remuneration for his trouble. Both these widows died within the last 6 months. It does not appear to me that this Enam can be recognized as a service Enam like the Enams granted to Pagodas &c. No importance is attached to it by the Community to the Customs referred to and there is no legal claim kept by the last holders. I therefore recommend that the Enam be resumed. |
