order no 135 dated 4th Feb 1857

Fort Saint George, Revenue Consultation of 6th February 1857.

No. 58. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th January 1857, No. 90.

* In Con. 5th May 1856. Read again letter dated 2d February 1856 from the Collector of Bellary,* reporting upon the lapsed Jaghire and Enams of Chinthapah, Member of the family of the Foujdar (of the same name) of the Harponhully Poligar.

† In Con. 7th Jan. 1857. Read also letter dated 23d June 1856† furnishing further information regarding the present claimant to the Jaghire and the original grantee.

(Here enter No. 70.)

Resolved that the above recorded letters, together with their enclosures, be forwarded for the consideration and orders of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council.

2. In these communications the Collector of Bellary reports the death of Jaghiredar Chinthapah, grandson of the original grantee, who was the Foujdar of the Poligar of Harponhully.

3. The lands enjoyed by deceased were, the village of Koordhagudda in the Koodlagy talook, measuring according to the survey, Acres 1,376, G. 5, Ans. 10 and bearing an assessment of Rupees 1,057-0-0 a Jameedary Enam in Hospett of the same talook, measuring 154 A. 29 G. Ans. 6, assessed at Rupees 354-2-2 and four Bhutvurty Enams of the aggregate extent of Acres 56-0-5, assessed at Rupees 100-15-10 besides other Potal and Curnum Enams bearing an assessment of Rupees 727-13-4 and paying a jodee of 362 Rupees.

4. The following remarks will be confined to the Jaghire and Jameedary Enam as they call for some special notice, and the recommendation of the Board as to the disposal of the Bhutvurty Enams will be found in the usual column in the Tabular Statement† accompanying the first of the above recorded letters.

† Remarks to Government 7th January 1857.
1 Pag.=Rs. 2-14-8 or 2-9 Rupees.
Pags. 20,000 × 2-9 = 58,000 Rupees.

5. The original Jaghire valued at 20,000 Canteroy Pagodas equivalent to 58,000 Rupees was granted by the Bengal Government to Somasaiker Naik, the Minor Poligar of Harponhully, to his hereditary Dewan who was mainly instrumental in the peaceful surrender of the District to the British arms, and to the other principal officers of the Poligar's retinue.

6. A disagreement having subsequently arisen between the Poligar and his officers, Government, on the recommendation of Colonel Munro, authorized a subdivision of the lands to each of the officers, and the Jaghire and Jameedary enam particularised in para. 3 were allotted to the Poligar Foujdar Chinthapah, grandfather of the last incumbent, under a sunnud of the British Government dated 31st October 1806. The deceased has left no issue, but two widows survive him and a cousin in the 3d degree, Mohadnoopah, about 6 years of age, who, Mr. Pelly states, was fostered from his infancy by the deceased, and would have been adopted by him but for a hope that he would yet have a son of his own to succeed to the Estate. A wish was however expressed by the deceased that this cousin should be considered as his heir.

7. The Board observe that the intention to adopt the present claimant has no legal validity, and they consider that the widows under any circumstances have a preferable claim to so

I am not disposed to recognise the adoption of the widows unless sanctioned by the Court. & I will require an opinion from the title of the widows to inherit.

H

I believe it will be found that if the circumstances are correctly reported adoption of this sort by the widows would be valid.

Ma hoodavappah, not being descended from the aught.

See Column letter
of 23rd June.

Frontier Chintakud, has no claim on the ground of descent. As his adoption did not take place, but ~~is~~ only said to have been intended, he has no claim on that score. I suppose that the widows are heirs to their husbands, & that after them the Joseph & village belong to first the Enam described in

The widows, I understand, care of the work added
this day - but without this so he seems to have no legal claim to the property - which I think should be registered in the names of the widows -
