№ 694 General Department.

Report of the Civil Auditor

Applying for an extension of leave for six weeks to remain at Madras in consequence of ill health and submitting a Medical Certificate in support of his request.

The Civil Auditor in submitting the application has the honor to report that the leave applied for by Mr. Whiteside may be granted to him under Sec. VI of the Absentee Rules on a Certificate in the prescribed form being furnished by that gentleman in lieu of the one now submitted which is informal.

Under Sec. XII the former leave obtained by Mr. Whiteside will now reckon as Medical leave - but no deduction will have to be made from his salary as the amount thereof does not exceed £500 per annum.
