No. 13. ORDER THEREON, No. 182; dated 10th February 1858.

From the Board's Proceedings above recorded it appears that the number of Travellers who halted at the Palavoyel Travellers' bungalow between November 1856, and September 1857, was only 13, while at the Red Hill bungalow it was 8 in October and November 1857, a book having been opened only from the former month. It is also to be observed from the Memo. furnished by the Collector of Chingleput, that the persons who occupied the Red Hill bungalow were actual travellers, proceeding from Madras to Nellore and Secunderabad. Under these circumstances the Government are pleased to confirm the Proceedings of the Board, authorizing the transfer of the Palavoyel Establishment to the Red Hill bungalow.

(Signed) H. FORBES,

Acting Secretary to Government.
