Order of Govt. 10th Feby. 1855,
No. 184.

2. The Board are aware that it is not usual to supply works of this description for the use of public offices; but the utility of a standard Dictionary of the Native Language in a Collector's Office is self evident and as they understand that Government have purchased a large number of copies of the works in question, they would suggest that one copy of each be supplied to the Collectors of the Districts* where Telugu is generally spoken. The Board would also be glad if a copy of Brown's Telugu and English Dictionary could be spared for the use of their office, a copy of his English and Telugu Dictionary having been already supplied.

Ganjam. Guntur.
Vizagapatam. Nellore.
Rajahmundry. Cuddapah, and Masulipatam. Bellary.

The Board request that the Collectors of the Districts noted in the margin may be supplied with a copy each of Brown's Telugoo and English and English and Telugoo Dictionaries. They also request a copy of the former for the use of their own Office.

2. The Government observe that 200 copies of each of the works alluded to were purchased by them under the orders in the Public Department noted in the margin and sent to the Board of Examiners. That Board will therefore be good enough to meet the requisition of the Board of Revenue as far as they may have the means of doing so. If the whole of the number of copies required are not to be had from the library of the Board of Examiners, the Governor in Council authorizes the Board of Revenue to purchase so many as may be deficient from the publisher or elsewhere.
