4. Item 1 does not call for remarks. Item 2 includes Rs. 11 in Trichinopoly and Rs. 64 in Madura, being the assessment on lands cultivated without permission. The cultivators being paupers, the amounts are irrecoverable. The Collector of the former district has not explained why the amount was not recovered within the time fixed in paragraph 23 (1) of Standing Order No. 30 (new edition). In the latter district the failure to follow this procedure was due to the neglect of village officers who have either been suitably dealt with or are no longer in service. Item 3 occurs in the ten districts noted in the margin, and the circumstances under which the erroneous charge was made have been fully reported by Collectors.

5. Items 4 and 5 consist generally of waste and shavi remissions and remissions of prohibitory assessment or water-rate granted subsequent to the final settlement of the demand.

6. Item 6 is made up of the following:—

Gódvári.—(1) Rupees 4 due on lands which were assigned for cultivation, but the assignment of which was subsequently cancelled; (2) Rs. 43 due on lands washed away by floods; and (3) Rs. 23 due on lands which were assigned for cultivation after the season was over.

Anantapur.—Rupees 7 being the cesses on lands, the usufruct of the trees on which was leased out; the leases having been cancelled subsequently, the amount has to be written off.

Chingleput.—(1) Rupees 1,254 being the assessment on dry lands on which a varagu crop was cultivated and which was ordered to be remitted in Board's Proceedings, dated 23rd December 1893, No. 519 (Revenue Settlement); (2) Rs. 30 representing the assessment on waste lands which were assigned after the cultivation season was over.

South Arcot.—Rupees 40 being the difference between the wet and dry assessment on lands transferred during the settlement to wet, but again transferred to dry.

Madura.—Rupees 11 due on certain unenfranchised charitable inam, the holder of which has disappeared. The Collector reports that the land could not be leased out and that the inamdar has no other property to be proceeded against. It is further stated that steps have been taken to resume and fully assess the inam.

7. In addition to the amounts recommended in paragraph 2 above, the sanction of Government is requested to write off the irrecoverable arrears noted in the margin. The sums shown against Kurnool, Madura and Salem and Rs. 8-3-9 out of the amount appearing against Gódvári are irrecoverable, the processes authorised by law having been exhausted. The balance of Rs. 108-12-0 in the last-
