No. 42. ORDER THEREON, No. 402; dated 27th March 1858.

In passing orders on an appeal preferred to the Honorable Court of Directors by Ragava Charry, the Archakhan or worshipper of the Audinatha Alvar Pagoda, on matters connected with the above Pagoda, the Government observed that the subject of the Memorial was properly adjudicable by the Civil Courts, and not one in which either the local Government or the Honorable Court of Directors could interfere, and that it was useless under these circumstances to forward the Memorial to its address. As these reasons apply to the case of the Memorialist Embaroomanar Iyer, who is the Priest of the same Pagoda, the Government resolve to return his Memorial to the Honorable Court which accompanied the above address.

(Signed) H. FORBES,
Acting Secretary to Government.
