Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th March 1861.

No. 133. Read the following letter from F. WALTHEW, Esq., Secretary to the Income Tax Commission, to J. D. BOURDILLON, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 23rd February 1861, No. 42 :—

SIR,

1. With reference to the Order of Government No. 72, dated the 11th ultimo, I have the honor, by direction of the Commissioners to report upon the claim to exemption from Income Tax made by T. M. Venkataswámi Náyudu residing at Vardámuttiyappan Street, Black Town, Madras, on the interest of certain Government Promissory Notes, stated to be devoted to the support of certain Charities performed at Tondiarpett in Madras, and in certain other places in the Madras District, these Charities being known as Tanjore Ráma Náyudu's.

2. T. M. Venkataswámi Náyudu has appeared before the Commissioners, and has shown that a sum of Rupees 1,19,500 is invested in Government Securities under the heading of " the " account of the Charities in the Will of Mámbalam Rangaya Náyudu, deceased," and that this sum of Rupees 1,19,500 forms an inalienable fund for the support of the Charities in question.

3. These Charities are, a Choultry and Agraharum at Tondiarpett in Madras, where certain Bramins are lodged, and where daily 150 Bramins are fed, and the Vedâs taught and read. This is the principal Charity. There are minor Charities and Choultries at Canjeveram, Trivalore and Mannúrpet, Sydapet Táluq, all in the Madras District. The fact that these Charities are really performed and that they are of a public nature, has been satisfactorily established by the claimant.

4. The Commissioners would, therefore, recommend that the Charities known as " Tanjore Ráma Náyudu's," and that the houses and lands at Tondiarpett known as " Annasatram" and " Agraharum," and the Choultries at Canjeveram, Trivalore and Mannúrpet, also known as " Tanjore Ráma Náyudu's" be exempted from payment of Income Tax under Section 133 of Act XXXII of 1860; and that a refund be made of such Income Tax as may have been deducted by the Accountant General from the interest accruing on the Government Securities in question.

No. 134. ORDER THEREON, 8th March 1861, No. 533.

1. Under Section 133 of the Income Tax Act, the Governor in Council exempts from the duties chargeable under the said Act, the Charities and immoveable property detailed in the 4th paragraph of the foregoing letter.

2. The Accountant General will cause the necessary refund to be made of any tax which may have been deducted from the interest falling due on the Government Securities referred to.

(Signed) C. G. MASTER,
Deputy Secretary to Government.

also known as "Tanjore Rama Saidoss" be exempted from payment of Income Tax under Section CXXXIII of Act XXXII of 1860; and that a refund be made of such Income Tax as may have been deducted by the Accountant General from the interest accruing on the Government Securities in question.-

I have the honor to be
